

Contents

Mufti Talha Ahmad Azami's preface
Michael J.T. McMillen's preface
Author's acknowledgements
About the author
About the contributors
Glossary of terms
Introduction

Part I: Overview of Islamic private equity

1. Private equity bazaar: companies and choices

Private equity: an introduction
Sharia-compliant private equity: going mainstream?
Taking stock of companies and choices

2. A brief history of private equity

Mecca and the medieval Muslim period
Christopher Columbus: a pioneer in private equity
Colonial powers: the British and Dutch East India companies
Bell and Edison: matching genius with capital
Doriot and Digital Equipment Corporation: the turning point in modern private equity
Body Shop bonanza
Gibson Greetings: the spark of the leveraged buyout era
Takeover kings of the 1980s: from Jimmy Goldsmith to KKR
Goldman Sachs: a venerable entry into private equity
The 'dot.com' era: bubble and bust from 1995 to 2003
Thomas H. Lee and the resurgence of the leveraged buyout
PIPES
The emergence of large private equity buyouts
Publicly traded private equity
Secondary markets
Enter the Muslims: Shari'a-compliant equity, sovereign wealth funds and Islamic investment banking
Global credit crisis: coming of the second depression?
Conclusions (that may be drawn)

3. Global and religious regulation of Shari'a-compliant private equity

Condemnation of usury: a universal
Lex mercatoria and Islamic finance
Transnational liftoff
Juridical touchdown
Shari'a arbitrage
Shari'a challenges

4. Shari'a-compliant transactions

Basic
Increasingly complex
Concluding comments

Diagram: the Islamic private equity process

5. Anatomy of an Islamic private equity fund

Structuring
Shari'a advisory
National security compliance
Management team
Investors
Investment strategy
Portfolio companies
Debt covenants and documentation
Liquidity and exit strategy
Shari'a audit

6. Next generation: Islamic fund of funds

Islamic fund of funds
Shari'a issues with fund of funds
Concluding note

7. Due diligence in Islamic private equity

Initial Shari'a due diligence
Financial due diligence
Deeper Shari'a and legal due diligence
Legal advice in investee countries
Potential stock dilution
Ongoing due diligence
Exits
The good, the bad and the ugly: case studies in due diligence
Appendix A
Appendix B

8. Comparisons: Islamic and conventional private equity

The credit crisis and the demise of conventional players
Conventional player's contribution to the knowledge economy
BG Capital: a conventional player
Lion Capital: a contrarian case?
Istithmar: an investment mirage?

9. Double green: the confluence of Islamic private equity and the environmental revolution

10. IT and insurance in Islamic private equity

Insurance spotlight: takaful in private equity transactions

Part II: Case studies

1. Dragon and crescent: Middle Eastern equity in China

2. The Admiral: a Shari'a-compliant movie financing

The Admiral story
The Admiral movie venture
Appendix

3. Tipping points: the rise and reach of First Global Data Corporation

The 'trio'
Product differentiation
First round financing and ramp up
Search for second round financing
Ideal private equity play with potential flaw
Future prospects

4. Quadrex diversified assets LP: making a conventional private equity offering Shari'a-compliant

5. Summerhill Ventures 1 LP: conventional, Shari'a-compliant private equity

6. SHUAA Capital and private equity hospitality

SHUAA Capital
SSFHI: objectives and management
SSFHI: fund structure and 'roll-out' plan
SSFHI: investment and exit strategy

7. BMB and EMP: purchase of a private equity player

EMP Global

8. Arcapita: Islamic private equity in America and the EU

Arcapita history

Arcapita deal flow

Arcapita 'sweet spot'

Arcapita: what's in a name?

Chickens coming home to roost

Arcapita's global backing

9. Back to the Basics: Islamic private equity and the restaurant business

Proposed restaurant

Risks

Investor type

Shari'a concerns

Moral hazard

10. Indonesian venture capital, Malaysian private equity

Indonesian VC: Bahana and beyond

Malaysian PE: the CIMB Muamalat Fund

11. India: the special case of VenturEast

Parsoli: public equity

VenturEast: private equity

Secura India: venture capital

12. Doctors, lawyers and equity-based succession planning

Background: the doctor's situation

Medical arts

The first proposed structure

The second proposed structure

Estate planning

13. CORECAP and world's first Shari'a-compliant mezzanine fund?

14. An ethical vision at Fajr Capital

15. Islamic Development Bank and the MDFI interest in private equity

16. Gulf Investment House and TransOcean Capital

17. Rasameel structured finance and private equity: a missed opportunity?

18. Briceamery and suitable compensation in Islamic private equity

19. Woodensticks: Shari'a-compliant equine and polo-related private equity

Playing professional

Polo lessons and membership at the polo club

Horse training and stabling

Real-life case study

Appendix A

Appendix B

20. Gold, minerals and Islamic private equity

Pakistan Papers: Global Mining Company (Pvt) Ltd and Shari'a-compliant mining capital

Resource production certificatesTM: Shari'a-compliant private equity commodity financing

Shahzad Siddiqui and Christopher Messina

Gold bullion and Islamic private equity. Protection and production: combining precious metals with private equity Shahzad Siddiqui and Toby Birch

Conclusion