

Euromoney Institutional Investor receives Queen's Award for Enterprise

April 22 2008

Euromoney Institutional Investor PLC ("Euromoney"), the leading international business-to-business media group, announces that on April 21 it was awarded a Queen's Award for Enterprise 2008 in the International Trade category. The award recognises the significant international reach of Euromoney's business, conducted in over 180 countries around the world, and the substantial growth Euromoney has made in overseas earnings.

Euromoney provides information in the form of online and hard-copy business publications, databases and websites, and hosts conferences and training courses in a broad range of sectors. These include finance, energy, law, telecoms and commodities which are all global and diversifying rapidly. As the world economy grows the need for emerging nations to develop expertise in these sectors also grows which provides further opportunity for Euromoney to develop new products. The company sells over 300 different products in 180 countries.

Commenting on the Award, Padraic Fallon, Chairman of Euromoney Institutional Investor PLC, said:

"It's a tribute to the quality of our products and to the efforts of our people who did so well in every part of the world."
